BURY THE WORKMAN

Verse 1

Steven was a deacon in Jerusalem
They dragged him out the city gates
To try and quiet him
When Steven preached
Those Pharisees started throwing stones
But before he died he raised his eyes
Saw Jesus on the throne
He said

Chorus

You can bury the workmen
But the work will go on
You can silence the voices
But you can't stop the song
When the Spirit's moving
His will will be done
You can bury the workmen
But the work will go on

Verse 2

James was sent to heaven
At the edge of Herod's sword

Peter he was crucified like his beloved Lord

The Roman Coliseum

The lions and the fires

But the gates of Hell did not prevail

They fanned the flames higher

Chorus

You can bury the workmen

But the work will go on

You can silence the voices

But you can't stop the song

When the Spirit's moving

His will will be done

You can bury the workmen

But the work will go on

Verse 3

And then they lowered Jesus

They laid Him in a grave

They thought that it was over

That His name would fade away

But Jesus wasn't listening

No He rose to life again

'Cause God is not persuaded

By the arrogance of men

Chorus

You can bury the workmen

But the work will go on

You can silence the voices

But you can't stop the song

When the Spirit's moving

His will will be done

You can bury the workmen

But the work will go on
